Mr. Schade, in an interview with the President, showed affidavits from Union prisoners, impeaching the festimony of witnesses. The same witness says he saw Wirz still maintains his innocence, and carries himself with an air of sang froid. He slept but little Tuesday night; he feels no resentment against the President or Court Martial, but it is impossible to repress feelings of resentment against the witnesses; he has given up German novels, and is more diligent in looking after religious matters. He complains of the injustice of the Government in not staying the proceedings of the Court until fourteen most important witnesses could reach him.

New York, Nov. 9.—The surgeon of the Atlanta states that the majority of her passeagers are emigrants from Switzerland and the southern part of Germany. They came by way of Paris, where the cholera is raging, to Havre, and while there several died in boarding houses attended by government physicians. The usual facilities were afforded by the officials for their shipment, and the anxiety to place them on shipboard was so gaeat as to cause an inquiry on the part of the officers of the ship. Since the passengers have been removed from the ship but few cases have occurred, and these are of the mildest form. We may resonably hope for the speedy disappearance of the malady.

Cincinnati Provision Market.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 9.

The provision market is in decidedly better tone. Mess pork was sold to the extent of 250 barrels at $31. Other small sales were made at $31 50, and many of the holders are asking $32. New mess is held at $33.

all but the demand is light, and packers feel as though they would like to have them out of the way. Prices at which they would sell, however, can scarcely be given with accuracy.

Green mants are irregularly quoted. Shoulders and sides are neglected, and 12a15c as much as the will bring, though generally held above this figure. Hams are steady at 18a18½c.

Packers are decidedly indifferent about "opening out" on the present run of prices for hogs, and more apathy is shown than ever before, within our observation. Prices to-day are not easily quoted with fairness; 210a11 gross, and $12 50a13 75, net, seemed to cover the range for light and heavy averages.

The Colored Convention.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Nov. 9.—The State Convention of colored men adjourned at a late hour Wednesday night. The proceedings throughout were very harmonious and of an instructive nature. A State Central Committee was appointed to urge franchise and other questions affecting the interests of the colored Americans. Previous to the final adjournment of the Convention the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That this Convention is of the opinion that there should be a representation of colored men in the city of Washington, from different sections, to be there during the session of Congress, supported by people whose duty it should be to urge upon members of Congress the importance of having the status of colored Americans so fixed in the land, that his color shall not be a bar to his cocupying any position, or to the enjoyment of all rights that appertain to citizenship Quite a number of counties were represented, the delegates from which, returned to their respective homes to-day.

Shall the Federal Congression of the Government. Shall the Federal Congression of the States under duress, by intimidating them, or bribing them, or forcing them to concur against their convictions of duty and interest, with the desire of their sister States? Yet such is the policy that the administration proposes for pursue toward Florida. It says: Pass certain laws, or we withhold from you certain rights and privileges. Legislate as we direct you, or we recuse you your legitimate place in our household. Such a doctrine is monstrous; it strikes at the vital principles of our political system. We appeal to the President to reconsider his decision, and rather to hold the Southern States under an avowed military despotism, than to degrade them by making their legislators puppets; and their laws the mere ecocs of the voices of Northern Inctions." The planters have adopted a plan to get the freedmen to pick cotton with success. The measures every evening of the cotton picked by each hand during the day are payed at once accordingly. This is an important fact, as a great deal of the cotton fields of Texas are unpicked—the freedmen refusing to work.

The cotton market is extremely dull and irregular at 54c. Sugar at 17c. Molasses active. Gold at 49146; receipts this week fully $1,000,000. Exchange firm. Checks &c. discount. Gov. Humphrey's addresses to the people of that State to organize companies to aid the civil authorities in maintaining order, cautions them against oppressing any class of people. The trade between Mexico and Texas is increasing, and promises to be large. Ex. Gov. Manning is elected United States Senator, and B. F. Duncan Chief Justice of the State.

THE UNDERSIGNED HAVING BEEN I actively engaged in business for nearly half a century, resolved, some time since, to partially retire, so soon as be could succeed in finding gentlemen of capital and experience to succeed him, so that the reputation of the sales and malt might be sustained. He has great pleasure now in infosming his frends and customers, and the public generally, that he has sold out his entire business, together with all his stock; and leased his extensive Brewery and Malting establishment to H. Darlington & Go. gentlemen every way qualified to succeed him, and worthy of public confidence and patronage. He also takes this opportainty of sincerely thanking his friends for tight continued and undiminished support, during the long period that he has been engaged in business.
